. . . . I F. . . . .

If you know what you are able to accomplish yet realize the things you cannot do

If you can find a goal that you believe in, remaing calm when everything goes wrong and seek your goal with persevering courage, relying on your faith to make you strong

If you can always use your talents wisely and understand what God expects of you

If you can see the beauty that surrounds you and visualize the wisdom of God's love

If you can be a child for just a moment while gazing at the stars that shine above

If you can be aware of human weaknesses yet criticize the thoughtlessness you've shown

If when your heart is breaking you keep believing that other hearts are sadder than your own

If you can disregard the faults of others and love them for the good that they have done

If you can overlook your needs and troubles and always try to help the other one

If you can light the way by your example and offer understanding sympathy

Then you will have the joy of knowing that you are the person God intended you to be.

BEATRICE WHITLOCK

WE, THE CLASS OF '73, WISH TO DEDICATE THIS PAGE IN MEMORIAM TO OUR BELATED CLASSMATE, BEATRICE CHRISTINE JO WHITLOCK, WITH OUR LOVE AND THOUGHTS.

IN MEMORY

As I walk through my life I am now living, I wish you to know my every thought is forever with you.

I am hoping that every dream and wish you have, no matter how different or far away, will through your love and patience become reality one by one throughout your life. And I wish you the same true peace of mind I have now found.

Smile for me, for 'time' of ones life means but little; it is only the way you live. I have lived my life on earth to the fullest, and now I live in the land of the Lord.

I am depending on you to live as brothers and sisters and to live your life the way it was meant to be, not bending it to the shape of others. "For through bending, one only breaks."

So along I will walk through the valleys of heaven, watching over you, my friends, til again we meet.

We have been in existence for a while now,
And along the way we have learned some things,
We have to make the good times ourselves,
Take the little times and make them into big

And to save the memories that are good for the memories that are bad.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Come with us as we travel into the future to observe the Class of '73 in a new world.

As we enter Munising, we come upon the new Underwater Transportation Academy which is run by Admiral Peter O'Neil and his two assistants, John Kuenzer and Carl Lindquist.

As we travel on, we meet the city mayor, Hank St. Amour, who is out campaigning to be re-elected again this year. Coming down the boulevard is City Police Chief, Bob Triechel. He is about to give a lecture to the kids standing on the corner of Elm and Superior. Helping him are officers Ken Cotey, Mike Niemi, and John Gariepy. Down the street is the meter maid, Kim Steinhoff.

Just about out of gas, we stop at Ward's Non-Polluting Gas Station, which has been taken over by Womens Lib. Owner Connee Ward has just come out to greet us and is telling her attendants, Betsy Boehm, Juanita Le-Veque, and Sandy Hallgren, to get busy on our car. After getting a super job done on our car, we decide to stop at the Dogpatch now owned by Suzanne Boucher. Her waitresses are Joni Perry, Gale Schierschmidt, Sandy Kirmo, and Brenda Monette. Tending the bar are Hank Scholtes, Brian Wilder, and Mike Brink.

With our stomachs full, we stop outside just in time to see the big parade! Starting it off is Miss Rupp, Sue Dore. The members of her court are Bevyjean Inman and Brunella Gurski. Next comes the Wheeler Dealers on their super hot bikes, Fred Krajewski, Paul Benam, Randy Griffin, and Steve Swanberg. Following them are Munising's famous Basket Wizards. Active players are Tom Starzyk, Larry Passinault, Dick Heimerman, Paul Baij, Tom Peterson, and Dave Zollner. Their coach is Ed Morrison, and the assistant coach is Ed Niemi.

After the parade we hop into our extra long eight-door car and start off to see the rest of the town. Traveling on, we stop and tour the TV Studio called the Mouse Factory, which is owned by Carol Middaugh. Practicing for their program for the night are Mary Kordish, Dave Methot, Cindy Heribacka, and Mike Tanis. The studio technicians are Steve Richardson, Bruce Stevenson, and Bill Chaltry.

The next stop is at Karen Ouellette's Department Store. Anne McLaughlin heads the Candy Department with her helpers, Brenda Way and Carleen Doucette. The Clothing Department is run by Penny Martin and her assistants, June Pratt, Paula DesArmo, and Carol Davis. The Toy Department is run by Eric Froberg, and his subordinates are Linda Johnson, Annette Colburn, and Jody Chambers. The Bargain Basement is run by Nancy Morrison and Marcia Denny.

Next we stop at a new bar called "Swingers Ways" which is owned by Paul Kelto and Gordon Berkel. Their bartenders are Jeff Loman and Keith Santti. Entertainment is by the Belen Bees with singers, Kathy Belen and George Lindquist; drummer, Brenda Baij; lead guitarist, Kathy Thoune; and second guitar, Kathy Carr. Just down the street is Radio Station WGON, which is owned by Jeanne Burke and Shelly McQuisten. Disk jockies are Bill McQuaid and John Toebe. Right now they're playing records made by Holly McNally, Kitty Johnson, and Karen Davidson.

Later that day, we meet Bill Lindeblad and Theresa Perry who are the owners of Lindeblad's Dance Studios. Their dance instructors are Frankie Chemis, Beth Anderson, Sue Kiley, and Colleen Masters. Next to the studio stands Billie Radloff's Beauty Salon, which is operated by Sue Seglund, Jan Wapienik, and the famous hair stylists, Darla Mickelson and Virginia Serr.

Coming towards us in the Driver Education car, which is about to make a right turn. Oh, no! STOP! Crash!!! Wouldn't you know it. The driver, Patty Barrow, turned the wrong way. She drove right into Michigan Senator, Al Benson's car, chauffeured by Jim LaMont, and carrying his passengers, secretary, Judy Bernard, and his body guard, Dean Thorrington. The Driver Education instructor, Sandy Monroe, is really yelling at Patty now! To save the day is Dave Snyder, owner of Snyder's Instamatic Car Repair, and his assistants, Leon Stutesman, Tim Bonner, and John Klosowski.

After that, we stop at the Court House. While entering the door, we are met by Clerk Vicky Bower, who leads us to the courtroom. Already in session is the case of Duane DesJardins, who is on trial for protesting against Womens Lib. The judge is "her honor" Kris Norlin. The prosecuting attorney is Patti Williams. Duane DesJardin's defense lawyer is Paula Higby. We wish him lots of luck.

Leaving the Court House, we visit Golisek's Art Studio, owned by Becky Golisek and Kathy Latvala. Right now, Connie Cameron is chipping away on a sculpture which was modeled by Becky Stevenson. Purchasing a couple of paintings are Sherri Gravedoni and Rhonda Cox.

As always, we are having a great time. This is a memorable occasion--one that we will never forget.

Here's hoping you are having as much fun as we are.

Yours truly,

It is stimulating and exciting.
It develops clear thinking.
It forces you to be exact and accurate.
It teaches you to be logical rather than emotional.
It promotes an awareness of the point of views of others.
It trains you in clear, forceful speaking.

Joyous, courageous, and courteous
Truthful, considerate, and just Loyal and sincere in friendship
Too noble to speak ill of others
Willing to forgive and forget
Prompt and gracious in obedience
Ready to do all possible service
Quick to appreciate what is done for me
Respectful to my elders.

Rita a real good friend who sis known for a long time. Sis never forget Rita and good ole' Sacred Heart.
I doubt if anyone that went there will
I remember one day when you lived in Gails house you went to my house so I could change. And I thought we would play out side so I put on about 6 pairs of heavy socks. When we got to your house you couldn't play outside ~~so~~ and it took about 15 minutes to get me undressed. Everytime I think of it I laugh. You probly don't remember. Well I don't know what else to say except we've been pretty good friends over the years. I doubt if I'll ever forget some of the good times we had. Keep up the good work and you'll have the world on your shoulders. Don't forget me

Lisa,
To a good friend
that I've had some fun times with, like when Karen was babysitting and we went up there. All the fun times we had cheerleading together. You're an O.K cheerleader but I'm better HA HA (little joke there) Think of all the fun times ahead of us. (If you ever get of grounded (another pun there)
• Keep up your good personality
and you'll go a long ways

Dear Sister Rita,

What can I say? Nothing except that you're the greatest friend that I've ever had. We've had some terrific times together and I'll always remember the last night "in dorm" when we had our little party. And when you make-up all your little speaking of notes---I mean it. Remember Canada, and when we went to Miss Campbell's and she said "Saturday night" in that tone of voice, "I thought it was Sunday"? Then we had our little chat about Sunday and how we should change Saturday to Sunday. And when we went to Mass on Sunday and you almost fell asleep? Remember the time you had to get up and sing in front of the whole school? Remember when you had to get up and sing in front of the whole school? And when you had to get up and sing in front of the whole school? And when you had to get up and sing in front of the whole school? And
